Built in the form of a Latin cross in 1871, The Basilica of the Sacred Heart contains 42 large windows and 106 small windows. Restoration of the church's interior and its magnificent stained glass work was a labor of love for the artisans at Conrad Schmitt Studios. The altars, tabernacle and frescoes were faithfully restored to their original splendor. For over 100 years, Conrad Schmitt Studios has specialized in the fine art of conservation and interior design in the decorating of churches throughout the country.

St. Francis Hospital & Health Centers

For more than 80 years, St. Francis Hospital and Health Centers has delivered medical care to those in need, with skill and compassion. We've kept pace with the rapid advances in medical science, and we've never lost sight of our dedication to healing the body, mind and spirit through a unique sense of caring.

St. Francis has expanded to better serve our growing community. Our new South Campus offers diagnostic imaging, medical and radiation oncology, women and children's services, a comprehensive breast center, emergency medicine, occupational health, ambulatory care, and outpatient/short-stay surgery. Many family practice and specialty physicians have located their offices right on campus.

Cardiac services at our Beech Grove campus include state-of-the-art catheterization labs, and are second to none in the Midwest. Our facilities are often used as a world-wide demonstration site for advanced cardiac procedures. The Beech Grove hospital continues its tradition as our primary in-patient facility.

Through all these changes, St. Francis has kept focus on its original mission: to serve and help heal the members of its community. Today, and everyday, St. Francis is truly leading the way to a healthier community.

Coat-of-Arms

The archdiocesan coat-of-arms was commissioned by Bishop Joseph Elmer Ritter in 1934. Designed by Pierre de Chaignon La Rou, of Cambridge, Massachusetts, it comprises a blue cross on a gold field and the fleur-de-lis, symbolic of our faith brought here by French missionaries, including our first bishops, who were French, and a fish and trident, which recall the Native Americans of the area, who spoke Algonquin, which means "at the place of spearing fish." Above the shield is a bishop's mitre, showing that the coat-of-arms is that of an episcopal see.

Archdiocese of Indianapolis

Logo

This symbol, or logogram, for the Church in central and southern Indiana was commissioned by Archbishop Daniel M. Buechlein. He asked Benedictine Father Eric Lies, an artist-calligrapher of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, to fashion a new symbol that would capture the diversity found in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Father Eric, working with Saint Meinrad seminarian David Reinhart, created a design with four stylized "views" of the archdiocese, one in each quadrant of a cross: an urban landscape, a small town, a farm, and open, hilly countryside. All four vistas were held together in unity by the cross, which touched and embraced each of them.

Father Eric, working with Saint Meinrad seminarian David Reinhart, created a design with four stylized "views" of the archdiocese, one in each quadrant of a

When Jane Lee, director of publications and graphics for the archdiocese, began working with the design, she added an arched line around the design and thus fashioned a stained-glass window whose four panes give the viewer four glimpses of our local Church.

Blue, which has been identified with the archdiocese at least since its the 1934 coat of arms' blue cross, was chosen as the "official" color for the logo when it is not printed in black. The particular shade of blue used in the colored version approximates the blue color found in the stained-glass windows of the cathedral church.

Journey of Hope Logo

This logogram, or logo, will be used in archdiocesan communications during the next five years. Designed by Jane Lee, director of publications and graphics for the Catholic Communications Center, the new logo takes the archdiocesan logo (with its four views of the geographic diversity found in the archdiocese) and re-images it along a road or path.

This symbol for the Journey of Hope attempts to express the four principles contained in the archbishop's vision of our celebration leading to the Third Millennium: integration, subsidiarity, complementarity, and consolidation.

General History

The Diocese of Vincennes—now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis—was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire state of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the establishment of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state became the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the state north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, and Warren counties. The remaining southern half of the state made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing 50 counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by apostolic brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette, or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the see city. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the cathedral and title of the see were continued at Vincennes. By apostolic brief dated March 28, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the episcopal see in the city of Indianapolis. By the same brief, the patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by executorial decree of the papal delegate, the Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, the papal decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an archdiocese, the state of Indiana becoming the metropolitan area. The dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette-in-Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made suffragan sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a suffragan see.

The Province of Indianapolis

The current size of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis is 13,757.7 square miles, according to 1990 measurements from the Indiana State Library Reference Division, and comprises the counties of Bartholomew, Brown, Clark, Clay, Crawford, Dearborn, Decatur, Fayette, Floyd, Franklin, Hancock, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Jackson, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Lawrence, Marion, Monroe, Morgan, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Parke, Perry, Putnam, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Switzerland, Union, Vermillion, Vigo, Washington, and Wayne and the township of Harrison in Spencer County, in the southern part of Indiana.

Chaplaincies

Besides staffing parishes and schools in the archdiocese, the local Church has always recognized its responsibilities to care for the spiritual needs of those who avail themselves of other institutions located within the archdiocese, both those that are an integral part of the Church and those of the secular society. In particular, the archdiocese provides chaplains for the Newman centers, hospitals, homes for the aged, and other public institutions. These chaplains are listed below:

Newman Centers

In addition to the Catholic colleges within the archdiocese (see the "Educational Institutions" section), there are 10 other universities or colleges, either public or private. Newman centers on these campuses care for the spiritual needs of the Catholic students and faculty members of those colleges.

Educational Institutions

Education is an extremely important part of the Catholic Church in the archdiocese. Elementary schools are included in the "Parishes" section. This section contains information about the seminaries, colleges, high schools, and deanery centers in the archdiocese.

Seminaries

Saint Meinrad Seminary, which educates students from many dioceses throughout the United States, is composed of a college of liberal arts and a school of theology. The school of theology offers four years of graduate-level theological studies for men preparing for priesthood, two two-year graduate-level theological degrees for lay ministry students, and sabbatical opportunities of varying length and content. The college offers undergraduate degrees in seven majors. The schools are owned and operated by Saint Meinrad Archabbey, a community of Benedictine monks.

High Schools (Inter-Parochial)

The archdiocese operates six high schools, four in Indianapolis, one in Madison, and one in Clarksville. They are designated as inter-parochial because they are supported in part by parish investments and because students from parishes in the deanery attend them. The four high schools in Indianapolis are located in the northern, southern, eastern, and western parts of the city. All are co-educational.

Goal.

An end toward which effort is directed. A goal is important to have.

A mark to reach for. And if you share your goal with someone else, they can help you reach it. In fact, entire communities can have a goal that they work together to achieve.

NBD has made it our goal to be the best bank we can be. And helping you reach your goals is one way we aim to do that.

The right bank can make a difference.™

ADAPTING TECHNOLOGY TO YOUR INFORMATION NEEDS

Doing more with less is a standard today. That means making hard decisions and fully leveraging today's information management resources.

Using market-leading application packages or developing a custom solution with common programs (e.g. LOTUS, EXCEL, DataEase, Paradox) as well as the more robust database languages (e.g. FOCUS, ORACLE, EXPRESS) on platforms from PCs to mainframe, SIM helps solve immediate problems and prepares you for continuous improvement.

We can also recommend and install the right hardware as well as provide training to make the transition smooth.

For strategic management of your information, think . . .

SIM is proud to provide information management services to the Archdiocese and several of its agencies.
